$10,000 DUE AND WANTED.—Old Merchants say: it is necessary to quit business in order to settle up; that many people are so mean, after you have credited them, that when you try to get your honest dues from them, they will "shy off," and spend their money, or run up accounts, at other stores, and you will lose their custom.

I don't want to quit business. I must have money I have been indulgent. I want every man and woman who owes me by book account or note to pay me now. I don't want them to act mean and "shy off." Stand up to the counter like men! Pay if you can. If you can't pay, settle some way. I will sue only those who don't want to pay, and quit me because I dun them.

Let all concerned call at once to settle. Thankful to a generous public for their patronage. I hope they will favor the new firm of Hartley & Metzger who will do right.

CONFESSION AND DEATH OF AN ARMY CHAPLAIN.

M. M. Pomeroy, the able editor of the La Crosse (Wis.) Democrat, gives the following death-bed scene, which he was called to witness on his recent visit to Chicago:

The Rev. Henry Clannard, an ex-army chaplain who left off expounding the Bible and recruiting for the Savior, and by indorsing the nigger and abolitionists became an army chaplain in one of the Wisconsin regiments, passed from life to a home beyond a blessed immortality the other day, and thus shuffled off his mortal coil. A physician had called on him two or three times a day for a month, doctoring him for an ague brought on while stealing cotton in Arkansas while with Gen. Curtis. On learning that the ex-minister, and ex-chaplain would not live the night out, we called with the physician. In a little wooden looking room not over twelve feet square, in an obscure boarding house in Chicago, we found the invalid. The room was bare of furniture except a poor bed, a little dirty washstand, two wood-bottom chairs, an old trunk, a pine table, on which was spread a newspaper on which lay an old bible, a pair of old snuffers, some pill boxes, and such stuff.—The dying man was propped up in bed, while a faithful negro woman sat on the foot of the bed. As we entered he rallied a little and asked the doctor who he had brought with him. On being told that it was "Brick" Pomeroy, he sank back, closed his eyes—rallied a little and said "Perhaps it is as well. He might as well know it as any one."

And he proceeded to make his dying statement which are in these words, as we took them down in our memorandum book, as the physician requested:

My name is Henry Clannard, I am forty-one years old. I am a Methodist minister, at least I was one. I was once happy and contented, and loved Christ, my Master, with all the zeal a Christian ever had. At last I grew cold in religion, selfish and envious of the good fortunes of others. I wanted to make money and to have some fun. I had no particular education, so I thought I would be a republican politician. I began by preaching politics from the pulpit, and praying for the negro. It paid me in money, but I lost influence at the Throne of Grace. But I did not care for that, if I could only have influence with the Republican party. I forgot Christ and became interested in the negro. I had influence with a few members of my church, and talked politics to them. I was paid by office-seekers to influence Christians. Sometimes I made as high as fifteen dollars at an election for my influence with Christians. At last I found politics paid better than religion, and I worked for the chaplaincy of a regiment and got it. Then I let religion go and went to war. There I wrote letters home denouncing Democrats and copperheads.—And I stole cotton and silver ware, and pictures, and books, and dresses for my wife and sisters, and horses and mules for my brothers, and a piano for the Governor who gave me the commission, and a gold watch for my captain, and a lot of household furniture to send home to my colonel. And I robbed the soldiers of jelly and such stuff sent down to them to use while in hospitals, and I had a share of the goods stolen from sanitary fairs, and made lots of money. Please give me a little piece of that pounded ice!"

The physician gave it to him, when he continued:

"But I was not happy. I drank whisky with the boys when away from home, and indulged in some excesses not worth mentioning, and laid up quite a pile of money. And I was taken sick while out stealing cotton from a plantation where a widow lady lived. I had coaxed her niggers to run away, and they are all dead now. When the war ended I came home to Wisconsin, but could not stay there. So I came to Chicago, and I grew sick. And I have got to die. I have called on Christ—I have prayed to God, but somehow I cannot get relief for my soul. The door of mercy seems shut against me. I forsook religion for politics, and now God has forsaken me. I pray to my Savior, but he does not hear me. I talk to this faithful negro woman—she says "yes massa!" and that is all that I can get out of her. I know I can't live long. I feel that I am dying. I feel certain that I am going to hell. Please give me a piece more of ice before I go. I want these things written down as a warning to others who forget Christ for politics. I feel that the negro can't save—that Christ won't save me. I was faithful to the negro, but alas, the negro can't help me where I want help—he can't ease my soul. I am going to hell, and I know it. I expect to meet many persons there who forgot religion for politics.—I do not expect to see you again in this world or the next, but I want this confession printed. Please—give—me—a—small—small—piece—of—of—of—ice!"

And thus died the Rev. Henry Clannard.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU—ITS MISCHIEVOUS INFLUENCE.

New England philanthropy, the humanitarian sentiment of that conscientious district, its horror of slavery and of the cruelties of the Southern white man towards the negro, were the basis and the staple of the great agitation that forced the country into war. Now slavery is abolished, there is no such thing legally as property in man, but there is a kind of official guardianshtp of the negro exercised by the Freedmen's Bureau. The agents of this Bureau are New England men to a very great extent, and thus it happens that the negro has fallen into the hands of the very men who were horrified by the treatment he received as a slave from Southern white men, and every mail from the South tells us of the brutalities practised toward the negro by those tender-hearted philanthropists. The Northern humanitarian has taken the place of the Southern nigger driver of other days only to show that he can be the more cruel of the two and outdo all that maudlin fiction imputed to the other. Our correspondence on this subject yesterday showed how a reverend humanitarian from Massachusetts attached to the Freedmen's Bureau, and managing a plantation on his own account, actually shot a negro for attempting to "run away," and this when slavery has been abolished.

Now that the great Southern institution has been swept away, the next thing for the country to abolish is the Freedmen's Bureau. This establishment is the parent of untold evils in every part of the Southern States. It is simply a great agent for the demoralization of labor. It was originally established in the expectation that it would prevent many of the evils that it was thought would be incident to the changed condition of the negro; but it fosters and keeps alive the evils it was expected to prevent. It was to stand between the negro and the planter and soften the asperites both ways—to prevent idleness on the one hand and bad treatment on the other. But all the idleness, misunderstanding and cases of bad treatment are traceable directly to this Bureau and its agents. It is corrupt through and through. It sells negroes to planters at so much per head, and, following the plan of the bounty brokers, sells the same negro over and over to different men. It is not trusted or respected by any portion of the Southern people. Its agencies in the various districts are looked upon as disreputable places, and farmers who wish to respect the government keep away from them. The Bureau is a constant cause of trouble, and Southern society will never be restored to its natural condition till this bad institution is swept away.

It is also a great swindle upon the country. We suppose as a people that we have gotten rid of the great blot in our history; that we have destroyed the iniquitious system of slavery that was our reproach before the world. But here in this Bureau, under the cover of philanthropy, the worst evils of that system are perpetuated. It is undeniable that the operation of this Bureau is identical with slavery; that it treats the negro just as slavery did, only that it gives the preference in posession to another class of men. The negro has changed owners. He has passed into the hands of Northern capitalists that have political power, and the Freedmen's Bureau guarantees possession.—While thus it preserves the negro in a real slavery, it has no responsibilty, and thus it is in fact worse than the former system of slavery. Every unprejudiced account from the South agrees in the declaration that the Freedmen's Bureau is the great obstacle to the complete reconstruction of Southern society, and there should be a great popular movement to abolish it.—New York Herald.

A BEAUTIFUL FIGURE.—What a beautiful figure of life is the following: How many blooming, innocent hearts in the morning of existence become stricken with care and adversity, and droop and die in the mid-day of life! Happy indeed are they whom our Heavenly Father gathers unto himself ere the blight of sin shall have soiled the innate purity of their hearts. But here is the figure:

Early in the morning a maiden went into the garden to gather herself a fine rose for a wreath. They stood there in beautiful clusters of close buds, wafting odor from their cups, which were full of the morning dew. "I will not pluck you yet," said the maiden, "the sun shall open you first, when you shall bloom brighter and give out a stronger scent." She came at mid-day and saw the rose fretted by the worm, wilted by the sun, faded and withering. The maiden wept over her folly, and the next morning gathered her wreath early. God calls his loveliest children out of the world before the heart of the sun withers them. The paradise of children is a high degree of glory, the most upright man cannot set his foot in it, for his soul has already been spotted.

LADY Cartaret, wife of the lord lieutenant of Ireland, remarked on one occasion to Dean Swift: "The air in Ireland is very excellent and healthy." "For God's sake, madam," said Swift, "don't say so in England, for if you do, they will certainly tax it." Not for

BRICK DUST FOR SOREHEADS.

This reminds us of a little story! Say you radical, nigger loving Anna Dickinson, Fred Douglass, Ben Butler style of Repulicans, how do you like Johnson? How do you like going out of the Union for a President? You men who preach that God is controlling events political as well as eternal, how do you like Tennessee statesmanship? How does it compare with flat-boat style?

And God said let there be light, and there was light! This is Bible.

"And being in torment, they lifted up their eyes and saw," not Abraham in the bosom of Lazarus, but Andrew Johnson in the freedom shrieking, press mobbing, Democrat hanging, cotton stealing, women robbing, plunder loving, prison advocating, Democrat abusing, ballot box stuffing, office holding sepulchres full of nigger's bones?

How do you like the new President? Wouldn't you choke gently on Booth's windpipe, if he were still alive? How do you like this going into the Democratic party for a horse to hitch up with your mule! The seed of white men shall bruise the head of Republicanism, and Johnson shall be the next President, Verily we say unto you, now is the time to repent! It is a bad thing for you fellows to swap horses when crossing a stream! Why don't you Republican, wench hugging, law breaking, freedom shrieking, Union hating members of the only treasonable party in the Union, get drunk and parade with torches! Stand by the President! The President is the Government, you know!

Blessed doctrine, thought divine,
But this President dodge is fine!

He who speaks against the President is a traitor. Let traitors be hung! Why don't you get drunk, burn printing offices, murder a few Democrats, throw a few printing offices into the street, stop your newspapers, hold prayer meetings in barns and get drunk as owls, as you did when the other President spoke? "Who's pin here since Ish pin gone?" Who elected Johnson?—Why in thunder don't you get out the Wide Awakes, burn Democrats in effigy, shoot at them as they go around corners, waylay them in post offices, shout "rah for Link—Johnson!" and hold fast to the prize you found down South!

"Way down South in the land of Dixie!"

Ain't that a pretty little song? How do you like this "expediency" dodge? Why don't you cackle when your President lays an egg? Why don't you celebrate, jubilate, investigate, operate and arid tongue irrigate as you used once?

"Come, ye sinners, poor and needy,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore,"
Johnson ready stands to save you,
Now this cruel war is o'er!

Why don't you laugh—smile—talk, say something, if it is not so all-fired smart? Gracious, but you fellows are busy about now! This is your President. God gave him to you. You selected and elected him! What's the trouble in your camp? Oh, but you are a wet set of roosters! Well, never mind. We shan't hurt you. We won't hurt you. We won't mob you—imprison you—hang you—abuse you—harass you in business—malign you—insult you—rob you, and use you as you have for five years used us. You needn't look scarylike when you see a rope, a prison or a gun.

Get out the Wide Awakes! Call out the Loyal Leagues! Get up some Sanitary Fairs. Appoint a few Brigadier Generals. Raise some colored troops. Turn your prayer meetings into electioneering booths. Tamper with election returns. Control the telegraph. Lie to a nation. Open your mouth and guffaw when the President speaks. Be sociable. Don't act like wandering drops from a grand funeral procession. Why, you looked pleasantly good, joystruck, happy, angelic, when Lincoln died compared to the way you look now! Poor Republicans! How dreadfully grief wears upon you!—La Crosse Democrat.

QUODLIBETS.—"Isn't it pleasant to be surrounded by such a crowd of ladies?" said a pretty woman to a popular lecturer. "Yes," said he; "but it would be pleasanter to be surrounded by one."

A very volatile young lord, whose faults were numberless, at last married. "Now, my lord," said his wife, "I hope you'll mend." "Madam," said he, "this is my last folly."

It is said that a lady, on putting on her corsets, is like a man who drinks to drown his grief, because in so-lacing herself, she is getting tight.

Why are books the best friends? Because when they bore you, you can shut them up without offence.

Slanders, issuing from beautiful lips, are like spiders crawling from the blushing heart of a rose.

What is that which, when "thrown out," may be caught without hands? A hint.

In marriage the heart of a widow is like a furnished apartment, where one is apt to find something left there by a former lodger.

People perform the greater part of the voyage of life before taking on their ballast; hence so many shipwrecks.

THE COMING DANGER.

The recent bloody scenes at Norfolk, Va., in which armed negroes were the assailants and harmless and defenceless whites the victims, should admonish us of the dangers which lie in our path, if the policy of negro equality advocated by radical fanatics and knavish demagogues shall be fastened upon the legislation of the country. If their mad and reckless measures be engrafted upon our republican system—then, indeed, we fear we shall have passed through the fiery ordeal of the late rebellion only to prepare for another bloody strife in which the inferior race is destined to be crushed. We would avert, if we could, the shocking barbarities which would signalize a war of races. We contemplate the bloody picture with a feeling of inexpressible horror, and turn from it with unaffacted dismay.

To this radical idea of negro equality we are inflexibly opposed, because the blending of the Caucasian and the African races is utterly repugnant to every dictate of nature and reason.—Their moral, mental, and physical characteristics are so variant, as to render the idea of political and social equality with the whites perfectly abhorrent to every right-thinking American citizen. To obliterate these distinctions of race and color, which God himself has indelibly stamped upon humanity, is simply a matter of impossibility, and no one but a fool or a madman would attempt to do so.

We disclaim any unworthy prejudice against the blacks. We would freely accord to them every right and privilege to which they are justly, fairly, and equitably entitled. We wish them prosperity and happiness in their newly-acquired condition of freedom. But we prefer that as this is a white man's Government, made and intended for the benefit of white men, it shall be controlled by them, now and forever; and we respectfully submit that if the majority in the present Congress would think a little more of the interests of white people, and indulge in less hypocritical professions of regard for the welfare of the negro, both class s would fare much better, and such barbarous scenes as those lately witnessed at Norfolk would be of less frequent occurrence.—Johnstown Democrat.

AN UNEARTHLY STORY.

A very wierd story is current in the hill country of Staffordshire. We have been unable to verify the narrative with anything like precision, and content ourselves with relating it as near as possible as it was told to us by a clergyman. One day last week a carrier, with his horse and cart, was taking the accustomed journey between Buxton and Macclesfield. After he had gone some distance he was accosted by a wayfaring man, who was plodding along the road, who asked for a lift. The carrier took the man up and then proceeded onwards. After a while the carrier complained that his hands were cold, and asked his companion to drive for him for a time. The man consented and took hold of the reins. Before they had gone much farther, a stranger on horseback—the horse, by the way, was a white one—overtook them, and rode by the side of the cart. A conversation was commenced, which very soon took the direction of the cattle-plague. Its devastating effects were discussed, and a parallel was drawn between it and other calamities, past and future. The stranger on horseback suddenly became prophetic, saying that next year there would be a plague or blight among the corn which would destroy the fruits of the earth, which would be followed the next year by a plague among mankind. "Christians," he said, "would lie dead on the roadside by hundreds"—"yes," he added, lowering his voice, and addressing the holder of the reins, "dead is the man who si sitting by your side!" The driver turned, and to his horror found that he was sitting by the side of a corpse. The stranger on horseback galloped away, and the temporary driver of the cart was left to pursue his journey with his melancholy burden. —Staffordshire Sentinel.

IN the days of Andrew Jackson, his Postmaster General, Amos Kendall, wanting to know whereabouts was the source of the Tombigbee river, wrote for the required information to the Postmaster of a village on its course. "Sir," wrote the higher officer to the lower, "this department desires to know how far the Tombigbee river runs up. Respectfully, &c." The reply was brief, and read thus: "Sir: The Tombigbee river doesn't run up at all; it runs down. Very respectfully, &c." The Postmaster General continued the correspondence in this style: "Sir: Your appointment as Postmaster at ——, is revoked. You will turn over the funds, papers, &c., pertaining to your office, to your successor.—Respectfully, &c." The drol understrapper, closed the correspondence with this parting shot: "Sir: The revenues for this office for the quarter ending Sept. 30, have been 95 cents; its expenditures, same period for tallow candles and twine, was $1.05. I trust my successor is instructed to adjust the balance due me. Most respectfully."

"TIME is money." Of course it is

WHERE THE TAXES GO.

Five hundred and forty millions of dollars were collected last year from the people, for the support of the general Government. The business interests of the country, mechanical, manufacturing and commercial, groan beneath the weight of taxation imposed upon them.

How is this immense sum of money expended? An examination of the appropriations of the Rump Congress at Washington, will disclose the fact, that the white labor of the country is heavily taxed for the support of lazy, vagabond negroes. Thaddeus Stevens has just reported a bill from the Committee on Appropriations "for the use of the Bureau for Refugees and Freedmen," which contains the following items: salaries of Assistant and Sub-Assistant Commissioners $47,500: salaries of Clerks $92,700; stationery and printing $63,000; quarters and fuel $15,000; clothing for distribution $1,750,000; commissary stores $4,106,250; medical department $500,000; transportation $1,9800,00; and so on, to the amount of eleven millions, five hundred and eighty four thousand, four hundred and fifty dollars.

This oppression of the white men of the country for the benefit of the negroes, who, according to the report of Gen. GRANT refuse to work, because the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau have assured them they shall have the lands of the South, will continue so long as the Rump controls Congress.—It is this policy which John W. Geary indorses. Remember this, and vote for Hiester Clymer.—Johnstown Democrat.

WHITE MEN! WHITE MEN!

Attention, white men! Attention ye struggling toilers in the shop, in the field, and in the mines! Attention ye who work late and early to keep the wolf from your doors, who know not how to bring up your children and educate them, and pay the increased prices of every article which war has imposed upon you. Read the following detail of appropriations for the support of lazy negroes, whose 'freedom' was purchased by your sweat and blood, and who must now be fed and clothed by your labor and toil:

Salaries to Commissioners for niggers,	$ 47,500
Salaries of Clerks for niggers,	12,800
Stationery and Printing for niggers,	63,000
Quarters and Fuel for niggers,	15,000
Clothing for niggers,	1,750,000
Rations for niggers,	4,106,250
Medicines for niggers,	500,000
Railroad fare for niggers,	1,980,000
School Marms for niggers,	21,000
School Houses for niggers,	300,000
Telegraphing for niggers,	18,000
Total,	$11,584,500

The above sum is just about equal to the entire annual expenditure of the government in John Quincy Adams' day. It is a wonder that such an infernal outrage upon white manhood does not a cause a revolution, and the instant death of every man connected with such damnable legislation.—Day-Book.

THE HUMAN FIGURE.—The proportions of the human figure are strictly mathematical. The whole figure is six times the length of the foot. Whether the form be slender or plump, the rule holds good; any deviation from it is a departure from the highest beauty of proportion. Greeks made all their statues according to this rule. The face from the highest point on the forehead where the hair begins to the chin, is one-tenth of the whole stature. The hand from the wrist to the middle finger is the same. From the top of the chest to the highest point in the forehead is a seventh. If the length of the face, from the roots of the hair to the chin, be divided into three equal parts, the first division determines the place where the eyebrows meet, and the second the place of the nostrils. The height from the feet to the top of the head is the same as the distance from the extremity of the fingers when the arms are extended.

OLD AND NEW.—"What do the Arabs of the desert live on, pa?" asked a roguish girl of her father.

"Fudge, Nelly, that's an old conundrum. They live on the sand which is (sandwiches) there.

"Yes, but pa, how do they get 'em?"

"Well, really, Nelly, you have me there. I give it up.

"Why, pa, you know that the sons of Ham are bred and mustered in the wilderness?"

"Come, come, my daughter, that is too killing; don't say another word."

"Oh, yes, do tell me what they eat on their sandwiches."

"Eat on them; why, what do they eat on them?"

"Butter, to be sure."

"Butter! How do they get their butter?"

"Why, you know, pa, that when Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of salt, all the family but her ran into the wilderness."

A NEGROIST, who once had acted with the Democratic party, as it was said for patronage sake, the other day tried to justify his change of sentiment to a Democrat, and wound up by saying that "the Democratic party, when last in power, was so corrupt that it was a shame for any decent man to have anything to do with it." "Oh," said the Democrat, "the Democratic party has undergone a complete purification within the last four years," "How so," eagerly inquired Mr. Abolitionist." "Why," slowly responded the other," "all the d——d rascals left the Democratic party at the breaking out of the war to secure a share of the plunder, and we thus got rid of them. There was Forney, and Ben Butler, and ——."—Without waiting to hear the balance of

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR,

Hon. HIESTER CLYMER,

OF BERKS COUNTY.

THE CLIMBER.

A Campaign Paper.

The undersigned propose to publish a campaign paper to be entitled "The Climber," the first number of which will be issued on the 4th of July next, and continued until the Gubernatorial election in October.

This publication will be devoted to the support of President Johnson's Restoration Policy and the election of such candidates as are openly in favor of sustaining that policy. It will contain sixteen columns of matter and will be filled with racy editorials and the spiciest articles of the campaign. No conservative politician should be without it.

TERMS:

Ten copies to one address, cash in advance, $5 00
Twenty " " " " 8.00
Less than ten copies to one address, 50 cts per copy.

Get up your clubs and send in your orders at once. No attention paid to any order unless accompanied by the cash. Persons getting up clubs should be particular to specify in their orders the name of the person to whom they wish the package addressed, as all the papers in the club will be sent to one person for distribution. Address,

MEYERS & MENGEL,
Bedford, Pa.

IMPORTANT POLITICAL MOVEMENT.

In the last issue of the Somerset Democrat there is published a call for a county convention of delegates to represent the voters of Somerset county who are in favor of a free railroad law, who condemn the course of our representatives in the late State Legislature in regard to the extension of time to the Connellsville and Southern Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and who support President Johnson's administration. This call is signed by about four hundred voters, among whom we recognize quite a number of influential members of the "Republican" party of Somerset county. The convention thus called will meet in the borough of Somerset, on the 21st inst., and will nominate candidates for county offices and for Representatives and Senators. This is a novel feature in the politics of the "Frosty Sons of Thunder" and ought certainly to prove a successful venture, as both political parties in Somerset profess to favor a free railroad law and also to support President Johnson.

CIRCULATE the truth! The "Campaign Climber" will be an indispensable document during the approaching campaign. Our friends throughout the county are respectfully requested to get up clubs for it.

A HESSIAN CAPTURED.

Gen. Knipe has routed the Hessian of the Harrisburg Telegraph, "horse foot and dragoons." Bergner, the slanderer of President Johnson, the libeller of the best and purest men in this Commonwealth, is superseded as postmaster at Harrisburg, by Gen. Joe Knipe, a white Republican and a decent man. President Johnson removed Bergner and appointed Knipe, and although the Senate lingered awhile over the appointment, the influence of Senators Cowan and Buckalew finally effected its confirmation. Had it not been for the indefatigable exertions of these true friends of the Union and the soldiers, the appointment of General Knipe would have been buried in the tomb of the Capulets, by Sumner, Wade & Co. But the whole Democratic, combined with the conservative Republican, vote of the Senate, secured its confirmation. We feel like shouting over this result. Bergner has lied enough about us and almost every other Democrat in the State, to cause a general jollification at his downfall.

COL. MCCLURE, of the Franklin Repository, is about to start a campaign paper in the interest of the Gearyites, to be called The Old Flag. This is certainly a proper title for a Disunion organ. The flag under which Geary, McClure & Co., are marching, has but twenty six stars upon it, represents but twenty six States, and, therefore, must be quite an old flag—in fact a little older than the Stars and Stripes under which our armies put down rebellion.—We congratulate the Colonel on the appropriateness of this title.

"PO-TO-MAC!"

There seems to be some dispute about the signification of the Indian name Potomac. We find the following reference to this question in a sermon entitled "The Curtained Throne," preached by the Rev. R. F. Sample, of this place, "on the death of our lamented late President, Abraham Lincoln," on the 23d of April, 1865:

"Here I am reminded of an incident in the early history of this country. The signification of Potomac is generally supposed to be, the river of swans. Count Zinzendorf, who was familiar with the language of the Aborigines, says this is an error. He relates that long ago the Delawares, who had been at war with a Southern tribe, with the view of securing an amicable adjustment of their difficulties, appointed a meeting on the banks of the river which separated their respective domains. The Delawares assembled at the designated time and place. Hour after hour passed on, but the other tribe failed to appear. The former were about to retire, for the sun was near its setting, when one of their number saw a solitary Indian on the summit of a distant hill. Believing that others were coming after, he lifted up his hands with an exclamation of joy, saying, "Po-to-mac,"—"Lo they come!"

"The banks of this same river have been the scene of many a hard-fought battle since then, and the Potomac has borne the blood of martyred heroes to the Eastern main. Yet here we wait the return of our erring countrymen. May they soon come, in penitence, to pledge eternal fealty to the nation. Then, when we shall witness their approach, we will fill the air with our glad rejoicings, shouting one to another, "Potomac."—"Lo they come!"

Well, our "erring countrymen" have returned. They cry out to us, "Lo we we have come!" But who answers, with hands uplifted in joy, "Po-to-mac!" Who cries, in accents of gladness, "Lo they come!" How many of the gentlemen who admired Rev. Sample's sermon so highly that they asked a copy of it for publication, are now moved by the feelings of the Indian when he cried out, "Po-to-mac?" Alas! we fear us much that some of them do not remember the lesson of love intended to be taught in the beautiful illustration quoted above. They follow in the footsteps of Thaddeus Stevens, whose "hard heart" cannot feel the humane promptings which moved even the savage joyfully to exclaim, Lo, they (our late enemies) come!

WE must climb Geary's breastworks this fall! The "Climber" will show you how to do it. Send us clubs of ten, twenty, thirty, forty, fifty—just as many as you please!

ANOTHER FEATHER IN CLYMER'S CAP.

The Republican press have been compelled to speak of Mr. Clymer's character as unexceptionable. We now have the gratification of copying from the Pittsburg Post, a letter from Hon. G. V. Lawrence, the Republican member of Congress from the Washington district, which speaks of Mr. Clymer as "an honest man" and of his "public record as straight-forward and consistent." This letter was elicited by some remarks in the Post upon a recent speech made by Mr. Lawrence in Congress. When such ardent "Republicans" as Mr. Lawrence testify to the worth of the Democratic nominee, what more is needed to establish his claim to the suffrages of the people? Mr. Lawrence's letter is as follows:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, }
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10, 1866. }

JAMES P. BARR,

Dear Sir:—In your paper of yesterday you make a most ungenerous assault on me—for what I was represented as saying; but what I did not say. I send you a true copy of what I did say—and you can find nothing in it unkind—to the President.

I have always had a high personal regard for Hon. H. CLYMER, and did not think I was wrong in referring to his leadership of his party, or to his record, politically. You will see I called him a personal friend and an honest man.—Was this traducing him? I claim the right to refer to his public record—which has always been straight forward and consistent, and I am sure he could not condemn that; but I shall never condescend to say a word against him personally. So far as I am informed, no man can charge him with any dishonest act, or from avoiding the responsibility of any political act.

Yours, truly,
G. V. LAWRENCE.

THE Democratic Watchman, published by P. Gray Meek, Esq., at Bellefonte, Pa., has been greatly enlarged and improved. It is now one of the largest and neatest, as well as one of the ablest, country newspapers in the state. Mr. Meek is an honest and fearless man and has cut his way through many difficulties to the proud position which he at present occupies. We hope that the Democrats of Centre county, will rally still more closely around him and give him such support as will cheer him forward in the good work which he so ably and manfully performs. Mr. Meek has shown his good taste in purchasing a "Potter Cylinder Press," same style as that upon which the GAZETTE is printed.

EVEN Stanton at last supports the President's policy. The Cabinet are now a unit, with the exception of Harlan, in favor of President Johnson's plan. Stanton spoke warmly in favor of it and against the Radical programme, at a recent Cabinet meeting. Gov. Swann, of Maryland, has also written a letter in which he denounces the Radicals. The ball is rolling.

THE "Campaign Climber" will be ready for distribution to subscribers by the fourth of July, next. Only 40 cents per copy to clubs of twenty and upwards. Send in your orders.

WE call attention to the prospectus of the Phila. Age, in our advertising columns. If you want to take a good Philadelphia daily, by all means take the Age. It is at least a reliable newspaper, which cannot be said for most of the other dailies in that city.

IF you want a good Harrisburg daily, or weekly, subscribe for the Patriot and Union. It is one of the liveliest and sprightliest newspapers in the state.—Besides, it is the central organ of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and should be liberally supported.

LETTER FROM "OLD SALT."

A Strange fact---A question for the Federal office-holders---Have we any Johnson Republicans among us?---About the "New York Herald" and the people of Southampton tp.--The "Bedford Inquirer" in favor of equality and a new race of "copperheads," &c., &c.

BEDFORD, Pa., May 14, 1866.

MR. EDITOR:—It is a fact that is passing strange, that in these matter-of-fact times, matters of fact should be so lightly regarded. Of course people will not always tell the truth; nay, it cannot be expected that they will; but when I say people, I mean the vulgus profanum, the "outside barbarians," those who do not belong to church, or have not joined lately: I certainly do not refer to the godly, and, therefore, must not be understood as alluding, in any way, to the editors of the Bedford Inquirer. I make no charges of falsehood against those gentlemen; indeed I indulge in no insinuations as to their veracity. For the present, I leave those grave matters in the hands of the federal office-holders in this county, with this simple question, addressed to them, Is it true, as the "Bedford Inquirer," of last week, states, that "there is not a single Republican in the county that does not fully endorse Congress, and correspondingly express his contempt for the second Tyler?" How is this, Mr. Thomas Hughes, Mr. J. K. Bowles and the rest of you? Do you "fully endorse Congress and express" your "contempt for the second Tyler?" Somebody at Washington would like to know. If you answer this in the negative, as I presume you will, it will not be worth while to call public attention to the brazen impudence of the same sheet in denying that the New York Herald is a "Republican" paper. Pray, did not the Herald support Fremont in 1856, Lincoln in 1860 and again in 1864? Next, I suppose, we will be told by this pink of veracity, that the N. Y. Tribune is a Democratic paper and that Thad. Stevens is a leader of the Johnson men in Congress! As for the fling at the people of Southampton township, it will be remembered by the latter when election day comes. Never mind the honest yeomanry of Southampton, Mr. Inquirer! They know how to resent an insult and you will hear from them in due time. But I will leave this subject and "hitch on" to another one, by making a quotation from the last issue of the Bedford Inquirer. Says that sheet, in an editorial on "Equality," "We do believe that the Government should know neither white nor black, rich nor poor, high nor low, in the application of the law and the guaranteeing to her citizens of all the rights of person and property." That sounds very well, but how would such a policy operate? If all are "equal before the law," black and white laborers must associate together in the same field, black and white women must sit together on the same seat in the same car, and in all the relations of life controlled by law the two races must commingle, if either of them desires to mingle with the other. The one cannot run away from the other. And to what will this inevitably lead? Why, to the intermarrige of whites and blacks and to the breeding of a mongrel race, verily a race of copperheads. Wherever the doctrine of "equality before the law" has been taught, we find also the tenets of the Amalgamationists put into practice. Look at our own colored population? How many of them are of pure African blood? Not one in twenty. Many of these are the issue of white and black intermarriage; some of them are illegitimates; but even now whites and blacks are living together as man and wife, in this neighborhood. But a few days ago the daughter of a Mr. Griffith, of Somerset county, ran away with a negro man who was a laborer upon her father's farm. Mr. Griffith was an apostle of the doctrine of "equality before the law," and his child was his disciple and an apt scholar she proved herself to be. Now, does the Inquirer want to make a Mexico, or South America of this country? If so, let it continue to advocate the "equality" of the races, and with the help of the Radicals in Congress, it will succeed soon enough. But there is no danger of the people approving this "equality" doctrine. There are many of the Inquirer's party who loathe and despise it, and who will, at the coming election, vote accordingly. Stick a pin there. OLD SALT.

BLOODY RUN, May 12, 1866.

MR. EDITOR:—Please give these lines an obscure corner in your paper. I write for the purpose of upholding President Johnson. I have read his veto messages, his Washington's birthday speech, and his recent speech to the Soldiers and Sailors, and I have come to the irresistible conclusion that he is a conscientious, honest man. His great desire appears to be that the people shall decide between his policy and the policy of Congress. The plans of the two branches of the government, are in direct conflict with each other. The President, as the tribune of the people, wants these pans in dispute to be submitted to the people for their consideration and decision. Such a desire cannot be considered tyrannical, or as usurping power. It is the reverse of tyranny, or usurpation. A republican government is founded on the voice of the people. The people have not called on their law-makers to pass unconstitutional acts, to make the Africans citizens and to extend the right of suffrage to them. The reverse of this policy is the vill of the people. Who then has been usurping power, one man, or a hundred men? The veto power is considered the one man power. But the people can use this power wonderfully. If it had been considered a tyrannical power by our forefathers, it would never have been engrafted upon our Constitution. it was made by them to check hasty legislation. D. D. Forney may exclaim that the President vetoes the measures or laws that his friends want to be adopted and that he cannot be compared to Andrew Jackson, who vetoed laws that his enemies passed. Johnson, as well as Jackson, is sworn to support the Constitution. If friendship must be bought by sacrificing principle, it is not worth having. But the friendship a public servant obtains by doing right, is true and lasting and worthy of approbation. Jackson vetoed acts passed by the Whigs, his enemies. Johnson does not consider the Radicals friends when they want him to sanction laws that the Constitution does not approve. He will not "throw conscience to the devil," as Thaddeus Stevens advised a Whig to do in the Buck-shot war, and go with his party regardless of all that is right and just. Conscience is an inward monitor, it is a veto power. The Allwise Being has given mortal man this inward monitor to make him an immortal being. There can be no religion without its holy influence. Would to God that all mankind had a conscience "void of offence." Then brother would not meet brother in civil war. May we be governed by a good conscience, so that we may overcome evil with good, like our worthy President.

CONSERVATIVE REPUBLICAN.

CONFESSION OF PROBST THE MURDERER.

Antoine Probst, the murderer of the Dearing family, has made a confession. Yesterday morning Rev. Mr. P. A. M. Gunther, Priest of St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, called upon the Mayor and narrated the story of the butchery as it came from the lips of Probst. The confession was made to the Rev. gentleman on Sunday afternoon in the presence of Mr. Perkins, the Superintendent of the Prison, and the medical staff on duty at the prison. It was a free, voluntary and open confession. Yesterday afternoon, about one o'clock, Chief Franklin and our reporter, and other members of the newspaper profession, proceeded to the prison, and on reaching that institution were notified that the murderer's counsel were in conversation with him and that they were getting a detailed confession from him. After waiting for about an hour Chief Franklin was informed by the counsel that they would conclude their statement in a few minutes. After waiting until half-past three o'clock in the afternoon, the counsel appeared and informed the reporters that they had obtained from the prisoner a full confession, covering thirteen pages of foolscap, but that the murderer expressed a wish and requested them not to give publicity until after the execution. After a few minutes, and when the counsel retired, through the kindness of Chief Franklin and Mr. Perkins, Jr., the reporters were taken to the cell of the condemned man, and from him learned the following:

Confession.

I came to this country on May 9, 1863; arrived by the steamer Columbus, which sailed from Bremen. I was born in Ilingen, county of Badenser Lee Kreis, (before county of Havenstein); I am twenty-four year and ten months old; I landed at Castle Garden, N. Y., and was only there two hours before I enlisted in the Forty-first New York infantry; remained in New York about five weeks and then went to Washington, where I staid about six weeks and then deserted from the service; went back to New York and re-enlisted and was sent to the front and from there with the regiment to Folly Island, South Carolina; stayed there about nine months, during which time I was in several skirmishes; the regiment was then ordered back to Washington, where I deserted again and on reaching Baltimore was arrested by a provost guard and detained a number of weeks by them and then discharged. I told them I had not been in the service.—After being discharged and when reaching this city I went to Bucks Hotel on Carpenter street, where I remained sevdays. I then went to West Chester and enlisted in the Fifth Pennsylvania cavalry. This was in September, 1864; was discharged on May 18, 1865, in Richmond.

How he lost his Thumb.

While at the front I was kept on picket duty several days and had hardly any sleep. I became stupid and could not keep my eyes open. Having the gun in my hand one night I fell over and the gun was discharged. At the time of the explosion my thumb was over the muzzle of the weapon. After this occurrence I was discharged from the service.

His movements.

Immediately after my discharge from the army I went to New York, and remained in a house on Greenwich street for six or eight days, and then went over to Hoboken where I worked on New street at shoveling gravel. Followed this work for three weeks and returned to New York, and from there came to this city; while here I obtained work in Levering's sugar house, on St. John street, and labored there about three weeks. The work did not agree with me, and I went to Maryland, where I obtained work a picking peaches, at which occupation I remained for three weeks. Here I took sick with a fever, and was taken to the Soldier's Home, Thirteenth and Chesnut street, in this city, where I was sick for two weeks.

His visit to the Dearings.

On leaving the Soldiers' Home I went in search of work, and while going along Jones lane I stopped at Dearing's, and asked if they wanted a man to work. Mrs. Dearing said she thought her husband did, she requested me to call again; I then went to the house again at 5½ o'clock in the afternoon, and found Mr. Dearing at home. Mr. Dearing said he would give me $15 a month to do the laboring work about the farm. I consented, and went to work.

Why he was discharged.

It was raining very hard one day, and Mr. Dearing asked me to go to work in the field. I refused to go, on account of the weather. He insisted on my going, and I told him I would not. I finally told him to pay me off. He did so, and I left that evening, and rode up to the city along with Cornelius Carey. During the time I was at Dearing's I saw him count a large amount of money.

On reaching the city he went direct to Christian Moore's on Front street below Noble, and stayed there two days. I then went to Leckfeldt's on New Market street, and left my carpetbag, which had my clothing in, consisting of a couple of shirts, pantaloons, &c. I then wandered around the country, stopping at West Chestes and other places.

What became of his money.

I received bounty-money every time I enlisted. I spent it drinking lager beer and visiting the low dens of the city. (Probst laughed very hearty when he made this last statement.) Some of the money I expended in traveling around the country.

He returns to the city.

In November, 1865, I returned to the city from the country and stopped six days at Christian Moor's. I was then out of money, and receiving a ticket for the alms house I went to the institution on the 1st of December. I remained there four or five weeks. During part of the time I was sick and the rest of the time I was employed in the cook-house.

He again visits the Dearings.

After leaving the alms house on the 2d of February, in the evening, I returned to the Dearing farm, and told Mr. Dearing that I had been to Germany and could find no work and had no money. When I left his place I informed him that I was going to Germany. I also told him that I walked all the way to this city from New-York. He finally concluded to give me employment.

He contemplated the murder.

I made up my mind when I returned to the farm to get Mr. Dearing's money and was waiting for an opportunity to secure it. I had been at the drove-yard with Mr. Dearing about four times. About eight or ten days before I murdered the family I contemplated killing them. I thought of murdering them in the house, as I could not get the money in any other way. I had the axe ready in the house on several occasions. I thought of killing them when they came down stairs in the morning, but my heart failed me when the time came.

How he committed the Murder.

Saturday morning (the day of the murder) was a dark, cold and rainy day. I went out with Cornelius about half past seven o'clock in the morning. He took the horse and cart with him and we went to the ditch in the rear of the hay-rick. I took the big axe with me as we generally did to cut roots with. Cornelius sat down under the big tree and I got behind him. My heart failed me and it was some time before I could brace myself up to commit the deed. I raised the axe several times before I left it come down on him. I finally struck him on the back of the head and then cut his throat. I then put him into the cart and hauled him to the hay rick, where I concealed him. He always had the strap around his waist. There was some blood in the cart, but I washed it off with some hay. The sight of blood produced in me a devilish and bloodthirsty feeling, and I could have killed a hundred persons if they had been about the farm.

I then put some wood in the cart and drove up to the barn. I left the horse and cart standing there, and went into the barn, taking with me the large and small axes and a hammer. I then went into the house and told John, the oldest boy, to come out and help me in the barn. He did so, and I struck him down. I then went after Mrs. Dearing and told her something was the matter with the colt. She came out, and after she entered the barn I dispatched her with a small axe. I carried the bodies and placed them in the small building at the end of the barn. I then went into the house and called the other children out with the exception of Annie and the baby, and slaughtered them in the same way. I then went after the others. I carried the baby in my arms and Annie walked by my side. I seated the baby in the hay while I killed the sister, and then murdered the baby.

Question.—How was it that you struck the baby so often?

Answer.—I was in a hurry. I then carried the children and laid them with the mother, after which I took the harness off the horse, put the cart away, and went into the house to look for plunder. I secured a large pocket book with $10 in it, two counterfeit bills and a three dollar bill. About half-past one o'clock Mr. Dearing and Miss Dolan arrived. Miss Dolan went direct to the house, and I told Mr. Dearing something was the matter with the steer. He went right away into the stable, and while he was looking at the animal I struck him as the others. Miss Dolan then came into the barn and I killed her. None of them made a remark—I knocked them all senseless.

Mr. Dearing's boots I took off his feet, thinking they might contain his money. I secured Miss Dolan's pocket book, but it had only a few small notes in it. After secreting the bodies under some hay I went back to the house, made another search for plunder, secured the revolvers, watches, &c., eat some bread and butter, went back to the barn, fed the horses, cattle, chickens, &c., and left the house in the evening. I did not see any large bills in Miss Dolan's possession. I was afraid to leave the baby in the house lest it might cry and attract attention. Mr. Dearing did not take off his gloves before going into the barn. The prisoner then related the story of his stopping on Front street, selling the watches, &c., which all came out at the trial. Probst stated yesterday that he worked for his father at carpentering at home, and was not banished from the country for any bad deed.

His reason for not making a Confession.

He further said that he would have confessed to all the murders before, but he feared if he did so he would be torn to pieces by the mob.

During the trial, and even at the time of his capture, he states that he had a disposition to make a confession, but the yells of the crowd when he first saw them, frightened him into the belief that if they knew the extent of his crime all the police in Philadelphia could not save him from their clutches.

Probst also states that he did not like to go to the court-room during the trial, as the yells of the crowd when he made his appearance on the street made a deep and terrible impression on him, and he much preferred the solitude of his cell.

Although no one has doubted, for a long time, that he was solitary and alone in his devilish work, it is a source of infinite satisfaction to know, from his own lips, that he had no accomplice.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Cholera, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery!—A cure is warranted by Dr. Tobias' celebrated Venitian Liniment, if used when taken by persons of temperate habits. This medicine has been known in the United States over 20 years. Thousands have used it, and found it never failed to cure any complaint for which it was recommended and all those who first tried it, are now never without it. In the Cholera of 1848, Dr. Tobias attended 40 cases and lost 4, being called in too late to do any good.

Directions.—Take a teaspoonful in a wine-glass of water every half hour for two hours, and rub the abdomen and extremities well with Liniment. To allay the thirst, take a lump of ice in the mouth, about the size of a marble every ten minutes. It is warranted perfectly innocent to take internally. Sold by all druggists, price 40 and 80 cents. Depot, 56 Courtlandt st., New York.

A Single Box of Brandreth's Pills contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills in the world beside; fifty-five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of other purgatives. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are better known, sudden death and continued sickness will be of the past. Let those who know them speak right out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our race are subject to a redundancy of vitiated bile at this season, and it is as dangerous as it is prevalent; but Brandreth's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. By their occasional use we prevent the collection of those impurities which, when in sufficient quantities, cause so much danger to the body's health. They soon cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Pain in Head, Heartburn, Pain in the Breast-bone, Sudden Faintness and Costiveness. Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines. DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Democratic voters of Bedford county, are hereby requested to meet in their several election districts, on Saturday, the 16th day of June, for the purpose of electing two delegates from each election district in the county, which delegates will assemble at the Court House, in Bedford, on Tuesday, the 19th day of June, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of placing in nomination a county ticket to be supported by the voters of Bedford county, at the next general election; the only test of the right to vote at such delegate elections, to be qualification as a legal voter and sufficient assurance that the person offering to vote, will cast his ballot for the Democratic nominees at the October election. At the same times and places, Vigilance Committees for the ensuing year will also be elected, the names of the persons chosen to be returned to the Chairman of the Democratic County Committee. Delegate elections to open in the townships at 10 o'clock, A. M., and close at 5 P. M., and in the boroughs to open at 2 o'clock P. M., and close at 6 P. M.

E. F. KERR,
Ch'n Dem. Co. Com.

GLORIOUS DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN CUMBERLAND, MD.—The Democrats of Cumberland, Md., achieved, on Monday last, a most triumphant success, in the election of their whole municipal ticket. This is a propitious augury. The following letter from our old friend, Jacob Snider, of the Shipley House, tells the whole story:

CUMBERLAND, Md.,
May 14, 1866.

B. F. MEYERS, Esq.:—I write to you now, at a quarter of an hour of ten P. M., to apprise you of the result of our municipal election, which took place to-day. After a spirited contest, the Democracy carried the day, electing their candidate for Mayor, and their six councilmen, by an average majority of seventy votes! For the last five years the ballot-box has been controlled by bayonets, and the ballot has been practically denied to the Democracy. But, thank God! we are again free. With a fair vote, with free access to the ballot-box, as in days gone by, the negro equality party was compelled to yield before the simon pure, white Democracy. I unhesitatingly aver that if a free and fair ballot is allowed at the fall election, that old Maryland will give such a majority against the Abolition party, as will appal them and will send a thrill of joy to the heart of every true Democrat in the land. I enclose to you the ticket that was elected, which was as follows: Mayor, John Humbird; Councilmen, Francis Haley, Frederick Mertens, Andrew Gonder, Geo. W. Hoover, George Long, Asahel Wilson.

Truly, your friend,
JACOB SNIDER.

THE sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian Church of Bedford, on the last Sabbath of this month. This will be the last communion service under the ministry of the present pastor.

SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.—We publish, with great pleasure, the appended call for a convention of soldiers, to be held in this place, on Saturday, 27th of May, 1866. This call states the object of this convention to be the "equalization of bounties, lands," &c. This is all right and proper. If the convention confines its proceedings to this extent, we shall do all in our power to assist it in attaining its object. If, however, politics are to be meddled with in its proceedings, we wish it distinctly understood that we will advise every soldier who has the good of his cause at heart, to withdraw from it at once. We desire to see the soldiers, without respect to politics, unite for the purpose of getting their rights in Congress, and this can only be accomplished by ignoring politics in all such meetings as the one just called. Let Democratic and Republican soldiers attend this convention and let them meet as soldiers, not as politicians. Doubtless, designing men, who are always willing to make tools of others, will be on hand to try to manipulate this Convention and to get it to adopt political resolutions. Let such men be shunned by the "boys in blue," if they would not defeat the very end at which they aim. We shall see.

To the Soldiers of Bedford county.

BEDFORD, May 15th, 1866.

In pursuance of a call by Maj. Gen. J. F. Hartranft, issued at Harrisburg, May, 1st., 1866, and by the authority of the Soldier's Convention, held in that city on the eighth day of March, 1866, the soldiers of Bedford county are respectfully requested to meet in Convention in Bedford, on Saturday the 27th day of May, 1766, at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of electing five delegates to attend the Soldiers' Convention, to be held in Pittsburg, on the 5th of June, 1866. Non-commissioned officers and privates serving in the late war with treason and rebellion should particularly interest themselves in seeing that Bedford county be properly represented, as matters of importance relative to the equalization of bounties, lands, &c., will be brought before the Convention.

W. Line, A. B. Carver, D. Prosser, H. Burket, Lemuel Evans, Albert Smith, D. Weaverling, H. C. Lashly, Jos. Miller, A. K. Shimer, J. Robb, Espy Golipher, J. Sams, Abr. Carpenter, W. B. Filler, Jos. Messersmith, Jos. Byers, D. F. Keagy, W. F. Wilkinson, W. Ruberts, J. L. Meloy, D. B. Armstrong.

SOLAR PHENOMENON.—One day last week old Sol cut a very queer figure. We presume he must have been on a "bender," for he had two rings around his eye and a kind of straight line cut to the side of it. Seriously speaking, this was a phenomenon which is of rather rare occurrence. There were two circles about the sun, one enclosing a small segment of the other, whilst at the side of these circles appeared a straight line, the color of the circles and line being yellowish, but rather bright and dazzling. We presume the clerk of the weather will duly inform us what it all means.

RARA AVIS.—A large pelican was shot, on Wednesday last, on Dunning's Creek, a few miles from this place, by Mr. Thomas Miller. It measured 9 feet from tip to tip of its wings, 5½ feet from the tip of the bill to the end of the tail; the bill itself being 14½ inches in length, and supplied with a pouch of yellow skin underneath capable of holding rations for a week. Its color was white, excepting the wings which were tipped with black. Truly this was a rara avis in terris.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT CITIZEN.—It is our painful duty to record the death of E. L. Anderson, Esq., which occurred at his residence in this place, on Saturday last. Mr. Anderson was widely known as the proprietor of Bedford Springs, and his untimely demise will be regretted by many friends, as well as mourned by a large circle of bereaved relatives. May he rest in peace!

NEW ARRIVAL.—H. F. Irvine has just received a large lot of boots, shoes, and varieties. His stock is one of the most varried and extensive ever brought to Bedford. As Irvine claims to be "the regulator" (see board fences) he found it necessary to purchase a large lot of goods at prices which will enable him to sell very cheap. You will find every thing in his store, from a patent match-box to a shell-bark hickory-nut. Call and see him by all means.

IMPROVED WASHING MACHINES.—One of the most complete machines for washing clothes has just been invented by John S. Lash, Esq., of Philadelphia, who has recently obtained a patent for it. It is highly ingenious, although simple in construction. What is still better, it is within the reach of every housekeeper, costing as it does, only five dollars. For further particulars, we refer the reader to the advertisement in another column.

NEW GROCERY STORE.—Bargains! Certainly there are bargains to be had at Reamer's New Grocery! Reamer sells everything you can eat and something else besides, and bargains to boot! Now, do your inner man and your pocket-book both a service by calling on Reamer.

VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.—If any of our readers want to buy a good farm, we would refer them to Meyers and Dickerson, Attorneys at Law. We know the farm advertised by them in this paper and can recommend it as one of the best in this neighborhood.

NO. 1, ANDERSON'S ROW.—Great arrival of new and cheap goods at Shoemaker's, No. 1, Anderson's Row. Call and see for yourselves. Don't make any mistake, but call at the right place and you will find all right.

WHY can't a member of the order of Good Templars belong to a brass band? Because he is not permitted to take a horn. (Don't any body steal this con. We have filed our caveat.)

"THE AGE,"

The only Democratic Daily Journal in Philadelphia.—Great Improvements and Great Inducements.—Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty.

The publishers of THE AGE respectfully call attention to the Daily and Weekly issues of their popular journal.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance.—Besides special telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from the point the steamers first touch.

Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4 50; three months, $2 50; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.50; twenty copies one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Ten copies, one year, $16.50; twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cts per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, is prepaid.

☞ The Weekly Age will be the great campaign paper of the Democratic Conservative Party of Pennsylvania, and will earnestly support the President in his patriotic efforts in behalf of Union, Restoration and Constitutional Liberty.

☞ The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Please write the name and address plainly, and specify distinctly whether the Daily or Weekly is ordered.

THE GREAT CAUSE OF HUMAN MISERY—Just published in a sealed envelope. Price six cents.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally. Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c. By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world renowned author, in this admirable Lecture clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-Abuse may be effectually removed without medicine, and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

REDUCTION IN PRICE OF THE
AMERICAN WATCHES,
Made at WALTHAM, Mass.

In consequence of the recent great decline in gold and silver and all the materials used in the manufacture of our goods, and in anticipation of a still further decline, we have reduced our prices to as low a point as they can be placed

With Gold at Par,

so that no one need hesitate to buy a watch now from the expectation that it will be cheaper at some future time. The test of ten years and the manufacture and sale of

More than 200,000 Watches,

have given our productions the very highest rank among time-keepers. Commencing with the determination to make only thoroughly excellent watches, our business has steadily increased as the public became acquainted with their value, until for months together, we have been unable to supply the demand. We have repeatedly enlarged our factory buildings until they now cover over three acres of ground, and give accommodation to more than eight hundred workmen.

We are fully justified in stating that we now make make more than one half of all the Watches sold in the United States. The different grades are distinguished by the following trade-marks engraved on the plate:

1. "American Watch Co.," Waltham, Mass.
2. "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
3. "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass.
4. "Wm. Ellery."
5. Our Ladies' Watch of first quality is named "Appleton, Tracy & Co.," Waltham, Mass.
6. Our next quality of Ladies' Watch is named "P. S. Bartlett," Waltham, Mass. These watches are furnished in a great variety of sizes and styles of cases.

The American Watch Co., of Waltham, Mass., authorize us to state that without distinction of trade marks or price,

All the Products of their Factory are fully warranted to be the best time keepers of their class ever made in this or any other country. Buyers should remember that unlike the guarantee of a foreign maker who can never be reached, this warantee is good at all times against the Company or their agents, and that if after the most thorough trial, any watch should prove defective in any particular, it may always be exchanged for another. As the American Watches made at Waltham, are for sale by dealers generally throughout the country, we do not solicit orders for single watches.

CAUTION.—The public are cautioned to buy only of respectable dealers. All persons selling counterfeits will be prosecuted.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

The ingredients used in compounding Mishler's Herb Bitters are not kept secret by the Proprietor. Send for a circular and you will learn the medical properties of all the articles used in its preparation; also in the manner in which they operate on the system, and much other valuable information. If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.
may11.—1y.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL
CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st. Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation. It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, its channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complaint it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d. Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's Bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

ALLEGHANY MALE AND FEMALE SEMINARY.
RAYSBURG, BEDFORD COUNTY, PA.

J. W. HUGHES, } Principals and Proprietors.
J. A. STEWART. }

The Spring Quarter of this Institution will open TUESDAY, APRIL 10th, 1866.

This Institution is very pleasantly situated in Friend's Cove, 8 miles from Bedford, the terminus of the Huntingdon and Bedford Rail Road, and 20 miles from Cumberland, a station on the North Central Rail Road. Raisburg is a small, quiet and exceedingly healthy town, in the midst of beautiful scenery, and sufficiently removed from the influence of large towns and cities to render it a most desirable location for a Literary Institution. Its inhabitants are moral and religious, and there are few temptations to vice, idleness or dissipation; situated in a rich agricultural section, this Institution for Young Ladies and Gentlemen, is decidedly the cheapest in the country. It is organized on the most approved plan of the best Institutions of the land; its main object is, to impart sound learning. All branches, Scientific, Classical and Ornamental, taught. The mental and moral culture are carefully attended to, and (without sectarian prejudices) a due respect for religion is inculcated both by precept and example. "In things necessary, unity; in things doubtful, liberty; and in all things, charity." For circular and information, Address HUGHES & STEWART.

SOUTHERN
HISTORY OF THE WAR.
BY
E. A. POLLARD, Editor Richmond Examiner.
2 Vols., 8vo., about 675 pages each. $3.50 per vol.
With 20 Splendid Steel Portraits.

This is the only complete and authentic history of the Southern side published, extending as it does, from the beginning of the war to the final surrender of the Confederate armies.

Mr. POLLARD'S prominent position in the Confederacy has enabled him to prepare a work unequaled in accuracy and interest, and which is everywhere acknowledged to be the STANDARD SOUTHERN HISTORY.
It should find a place in every library.

—II.—

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART.—New Volume beging January, 1866.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:—

London Quarterly,	Revue de deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Pop. Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers' Journal,
Dub. University Magazine,	Edinburg Review,
Art Journal.	London National Rev.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

TERMS: $5 per year; Single numbers, 50 cents. Five copies, $20.

The Trade, Clergymen, Teachers and Clubs supplied on favorable terms. Address
W. H. BIDWELL,
Dec 22 5 Beekman St., New York.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.

PREMIUMS TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS!

For Blackwood and one Review	7.00
For Blackwood and any two of the Reviews	10 00
For Blackwood and three of the Reviews	13.00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews	15.00

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our late Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great ability and the different stand points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

Premiums to New Subscribers.

New Subscribers to any two of the above periodicals for 1866 will be entitled to receive, gratis, any one of the "Four Reviews" for 1865. New Subscribers to all five of the Periodicals for 1866, will receive gratis, any two of the "Four Reviews" for 1865.

Subscribers may also obtain back numbers at the following reduced rates, viz:

Blackwood from September, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, at the rate of $2.50 a year.

The North British from January, 1865, to December, 1865, inclusive; the Edinburgh and the Westminster from April, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, and the London Quarterly for the year 1865, at the rate of $1.50 a year for each or any Review.

☞ A few copies yet remain of all the Four Reviews for 1865 at $4.00 a set, or $1.50 for any one.

A MAGNIFICENT PREMIUM.

We will send per express, carefully boxed, a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine, to any one who will send us, on or before Feb 1st, 1866, THIRTY SUBSCRIBERS TO THE OLD GUARD, at $3.00 each. The regular manufacturer's price is $55. No such an opportunity to circulate a superior Family Magazine, and secure a first-class Family Sewing Machine, was ever offered.

We shall commence in the January number for 1866 a series of Steel Plate Portraits, with Sketches of the most distinguished Southern Generals, beginning with Gen. Robert E. Lee. Among those given will be Generals Stonewall Jackson J. E. Johnston, Beauregard, A. P. Hill, Price, Wade Hampton, etc., etc. These Portraits and Sketches alone will be worth the price of the Magazine.

Subscriptions may commence with any number. When no time is specified, it will be understood that the subscriber wishes to begin with the January number, the first one of the volume, and back numbers will be sent accordingly.

The Magazine is always stopped when the term of subscription expires. It is not necessary to give notice of discontinuance.

AGENTS WANTED all over the United States to circulate The Old Guard. For terms, address publishers.

VAN EVRIE, HORTON & CO.,
No. 162 Nassau St., New York.

All persons whose subscriptions expire with the December number, and who intend to renew for the next year, are particularly requested to do so at once, in order that their names may not be removed from the lists. This will insure promptness in the reception of the January number. In remitting please state the fact that the subscription is a renewal.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled
EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

Single Numbers, 10 cents.
Subscription price $6.00 per year, in advance.

MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.

CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT.—Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by TICKNOR AND FIELDS will receive EVERY SATURDAY for $4.00 per year in advance.
TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers,

THE GREAT VARIETY STORE!
ANDERSON'S ROW.
H. F. IRVINE,
REGULATOR OF PRICES IN BEDFORD.

Having purchased the establishment of Joseph Alsip, Jr., and added a fresh supply of
BOOTS AND SHOES,
I am determined to sell as cheap as the cheapest. Call and see my fine assortment of QUEENSWARE, GLASSWARE, &c.
Also, my large stock of
HOSIERY,
GLOVES,
NECK-TIES,
COLLARS, &c.
Also, my articles in the Stationery line, such as Pencils, Steel-Pens, Penholders, &c.
Also, my VARIETIES, such as
Spices of all kinds,
Table Salt, Essence of Coffee, Humbleton's Hair Stain, etc. In the BOOT and SHOE line, I keep every thing calculated for man, woman or child; BOOTS of all kinds; SHOES of every description; GAITERS of all styles in the market.
CALL AND SEE MY GOODS,
and examine for yourselves!
No trouble to show goods. My prices will suit the times and the pockets of purchasers.
N. B. Orders from country merchants promptly filled at small advance upon city prices.
☞ I am also agent for the New England Family Sewing Machine, which should be in every family. An entire machine for the little sum of $20.00. Call and hand in your orders soon.
Oct. 20, '65. H. F. IRVINE.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL.—The subscriber would most respectfully inform the ladies and gentlemen of Bedford and vicinity, that he has again just returned from Philadelphia, with a well selected assortment of Ladies', Gentlemen's, Misses and Children's Boots,
Shoes,
Gaiters,
and Balmorals,
of various descriptions, to which he respectfully invites their attention.

FOR GENTLEMEN, BOYS AND YOUTHS, he has every thing in their line, together with a stock of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, consisting of collars (all styles), scarfs, scarf-pins, neck-ties, butterflies, suspenders, handkerchiefs, &c., &c.

Also, the best brands TOBACCO AND CIGARS, all of which will be sold at a very small advance to CASH AND SHORT-TIME BUYERS.

As heretofore stated, we do not boast that ours is the largest, cheapest, and best assortment of Boots and Shoes ever brought to Bedford, but we have bought according to our means, feeling assured that the best and decidedly the most lasting advertisement, is a trial of the goods. But whilst there may be larger, we feel confident that there is none better.

Having been in the shoe business all our life, we feel satisfied that we fully understand our business, and have purchased our goods accordingly. We have on hand a nice stock of plain and fine to which we invite attention.

Repairing done with neatness and despatch, and all rips of our own goods sewed free of charge.

☞ Please remember' All rips sewed or pegged free of charge.

TO THE LADIES.

We take pleasure in saying that we have an excellent stock of J. L. RITTER'S PHILADELPHIA MADE SHOES AND GAITERS, which we will guarantee to wear as LONG as any other make; and neatly repaired when necessary. We still have a separate apartment for their accommodation, have a lady to wait upon them, and will be most happy to have them give us a call.

☞ Don't forget the place, Shaffer's Building, Juniata Street, a few doors South of the Washington Hotel. J. HENRY HUTTON.

1866. MAKE UP YOUR CLUBS.
THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all, in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes it the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrines must if he entertain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

HELMBOLD'S BUCHU.

The only known remedy for

DIABETES,

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGURY OR PAINFUL URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmbold's Buchu will relieve you.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of

PHARMACY AND CHEMISTRY.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC

Is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL,

See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

FROM THE LARGEST
MANUFACTURING CHEMIST
IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WM. WEIGHTMAN,
(Firm of Powers & Weightman,)
Manufacturing Chemists,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar. 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and Laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies, and finishing with certificates.

The Science of Medicine stands SIMPLE, PURE, and MAJESTIC,—having Fact for its Basis, Induction for its Pillar, Truth alone for its Capital.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

SHRINERS BALSAMIC COUGH SYRUP.
For Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting Blood, Pain and Weakness of the Breast, Difficulty of Breathing, &c.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of the State.

It is used by all classes of society, and the universal opinion is that it is good. This Syrup is Purely Vegetable Compound. It is pleasant to take, and never does injury. But owing to its purifying qualities, must do good under any circumstances. Its effects are truly wonderful, soothing, calming, and allaying the most violent coughs, purifying, strengthening and invigorating the whole system, calming and soothing the nerves, aiding and facilitating expectoration, and healing the
